

1st MEMBREC SYMPOSIUM

Vesicles and Organelles

University of Helsinki Main Building, September 6, 2012

MEMBREC symposia focus on the current knowledge on biological membranes. The presentations will have both scientific and educational focus – making the symposia easy to follow and suitable for both experts and beginners. MEMBREC Symposia are organized by the Cell Biology Program of the Viikki Research Groups in Biosciences and membrane researchers in Meilahti.
